

József Adorján Memorial Swimming Competition

25th October 2025
KAPOSVÁR
HUNGARY

Invitation

Welcome to Kaposvár, one of the Hungarian cities of outstanding water athletes! We have the honour to invite all the countries in the World to participate in the József Adorján Memorial Competition to Kaposvár – Hungary on 25th October 2025 organized by the "Kaposvári 1.MCM-Diamant Sportclub".

I would like to welcome all athletes and wish they perform at their best in a fair competition.

László Kovács

Tournament director
Coach, Head of the 1.MCM-Diamant Adorján Sportclub

Who are we commemorating within the framework of the competition?

József Adorján (1894-1976) was an outstanding sportsman who excelled in numerous sports beyond swimming. He was an amateur football national team member, played water polo, won running competitions, and participated in chess and fencing tournaments. He is credited with establishing and flourishing the swimming sport in our city.

He was the first in Hungary to teach the "crawl technique." As a coach, he mentored several notable athletes, including Olympic swimming champion Ferenc Csik, Olympic bronze medalist Árpád Lengyel, perpetual Hungarian champion Sándor Németh, and Olympic silver medalist water polo player Endre Győrfi (Jutasi, 2007).
